Welcome to Cornerstone Family Services, LLC.

We are so glad that you found us and that you're interested in learning more about what we do here! CFS is a group of well-qualified and dedicated therapists who work with individuals and families to help them find solutions that work. We specialize in working with Adolescents, Couples, Whole Family Systems, and Individuals. Please continue reading below to learn more about each therapist and their specialties.

Jennifer D. Vann, MS, LMFT

Jennifer specializes in working with adolescents and whole family systems. She has specialty training in the field of Marriage and Family Therapy and uses a combination of systems theory and psychodynamic principles to help clients look beyond the patterns of their behaviors and relationships for underlying causes of the presenting issue. Jennifer also works extensively with adolescents to help them address the plethora of issues that students face while discovering who they are in this world. With co-therapist Libby Chalk, Jennifer helps lead a High Functioning Autism/Aspergers Teen group that helps these teens explore relationships and social meanings in a safe environment with similar folks.

Libby Chalk, LMFT

Libby specializes in working with adolescents and women's issues. She has had specialty training in integrating psychology and spiritual issues and clients often seek her out for this reason. Libby has special training systems theory and Christian principles to help her clients discover all available resources for problem solving, growth, and restoration. Libby has additional training in helping women work through sexual concerns, whether individual or within the context of a relationship. She works with co-therapist Jennifer Vann to lead a High Functioning Autism/Aspergers Teen group that helps teens on the Spectrum explore relationships and social meanings in a safe environment with similar teens.
